

Short Story Writing Prompt

Short stories tell a complete tale in a limited number of words, usually focusing on a specific event or character. They include elements like plot, setting, and conflict, allowing writers to explore themes and emotions in a concise format. Through short stories, you can deliver powerful messages or experiences in just a few pages.

Write a short story about a person who is a duplicate of you. Explore how this duplicate differs from you and the experiences you share.

In your story, consider:

- What unique traits or characteristics does your duplicate possess that set them apart from you?
- How does your duplicate's presence affect your life, relationships, and daily routines?
- What challenges or adventures arise from having a duplicate, and what lessons do you learn through this experience?