

Writing Prompt

Describe the picture below. What are the physical characteristics of the house? Who lives in the house? What's their story? What's the significance of this house?

In your description, consider:

- What does the house look like? Think about its size, shape, color, and any unique features like a broken window, overgrown garden, or a freshly painted door.
- Who lives in the house? Is it a family, an elderly person, or perhaps someone mysterious? How do they interact with the house and its surroundings?
- What's the backstory of the house? Has it been passed down for generations, or does it hold a secret or hidden treasure?
- How does the house play a role in the life of its residents or the community? Is it a gathering place, a source of pride, or maybe a symbol of something important?

